

About Ingrid...

Ingrid Grayling is a professional Dog Trainer based in South Devon, having relocated from Cumbria in 2019 where she had established herself as a nationally recognized elite trainer alongside running home from home holidays and boarding kennels.

With over 30 years of experience and an extensive knowledge of dog behaviour, Ingrid has never met a dog that she cannot train. Recognizing that each dog and owner are different, Ingrid offers bespoke one-to-one training for the client and the dog, aimed at teaching the correct techniques and skills of dog handling to ensure a totally secure, happy, well behaved and trustworthy dog.

Whether you are looking for pre-puppy advice, foundation training, anti-livestock training or support with a particular behavioural/training issue, Ingrid pairs her knowledge with endless enthusiasm and passion for dogs to mould a suitable tailored solution.
